III. General professional experience:

I have practiced law in the District of Columbia since 1985 with an emphasis on personal injury, some employment law and more recently nursing disciplinary defense. I have also held adjunct faculty positions in New York City and Connecticut developing and teaching the Legal Aspects of Nursing. Currently, I am teaching in an ABA approved Paralegal/Legal Nurse Consulting Program (LNC) in White Plains, New York on a part-time basis. I am teaching the Alternative Dispute Resolution module that I developed. I have also given seminars on nursing and the law.

IV. General pertinent experience:

From 1991 to 2002, I was a court-appointed mediator for the Multidoor Division of the District of Columbia Superior Court. I have mediated over 100 cases, many cases with multiple parties. Mediation in this setting is mandated after discovery has been completed and prior to the Pre-trial Conference.

V. Mediation training:

1991 – Mediation Training: 40 Hrs provided by D.C. Superior Court

1993 – Healthcare Mediation: 1 day Seminar sponsored by the American Arbitration Association.

2000 – Mediation: 1 semester, New York University: Conflict and Dispute Resolution Program (Continuing Education).

2001 – Mediation Workshop: 1 day sponsored by Vermont Law School

2001 – Advanced Mediation Workshop: 1 week sponsored by Harvard Law School (Summer Program for Practicing Attorneys).

2002 – Mediation Workshop: 1 day sponsored by JAMS, NYC.

2003 – Mediation Luncheon sponsored by the Bar Association of the City of New York.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Other than general knowledge, I have no bankruptcy experience.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience :

1998-2003 – Of Counsel to the firm Ross & Hardies, Now McGuireWoods, LLP

2001 – Panelist at a Mediation Workshop sponsored by Multidoor Division of D.C. Superior Court (2 hr. Session)

Recently served as Co-Chair for a Conference entitled: Legislative Issues: The Power of Advocacy, Alexandria, Virginia
